WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 7. 1743.

Rome, Auguſt 24.

LAST Thurſday the Chevalier de St. George had an Audience of the Pope, in relation to ſome Propoſals for the Marriage of his eldeſt Son. Yeſterday Cardinal Aquaviva had a long Audience, in which his Holineſs informed him, that tho' he was by no means willing to have any Difference with the Court of Spain, yet it was a Thing ſimply impoſſible for him to be a tame Spectator of the Miſeries brought upon his Subjects by the long Stay of the Spaniſh Troops in the Eccleſiaſtical State; not contented with which, they were now about to expoſe the Sea-Coaſts of his Country to the Reſentment of the Engliſh, by ſending Convoys of Artillery and Ammunition. His Eminence did all he could to pacify him, by promiſing, that the Miſchiefs done by the Spaniſh Troops ſhould be repair'd, and that, for the future, no Attempt ſhould be made to convey Artillery or Ammunition thro' his Dominions. It does not appear, however, that all he could ſay had any great Effect, ſince the Pope told him at parting, that he ſaw plainly the Spaniards would bring that to paſs, which all their Enemies could never obtain, viz. a Confederacy of all the States of Italy to prevent his Catholick Majeſty's tranſporting any Troops thither.

Hambourgh, September 6. We have a great deal of News here, to which we do not give entire Credit. In the firſt Place, we are inform'd that the News of the Conſpiracy in Ruſſia had a great Effect on the Dyet and People of Sweden; that the former had reſolv'd to compliment his Majeſty upon the Diſcovery of it, and that the latter had threaten'd to pull down the Houſe of a Foreign Miniſter, who is ſuddenly become the Object of their Hatred; to whom they aſcribe the Rebellion of the Dalecarlians, the Eſcape of Count Lewenhaupt, the Armament of Denmark, and, in ſhort, all the Miſchiefs in the North. It is a prevailing Opinion here, that the French have, in ſome Meaſure, reſtor'd their old Syſtem; That Denmark is, for the future, to hold the Place of Sweden; that a certain German Prince has promiſed to make the Emperor's Quarrel his own; and that prodigious Offers have been, or will be made, to the Court of Dreſden, in order to open a new Scene in the Empire, and bring about, perhaps, a new Invaſion of Bohemia. All Things, however, are thought to depend on the Succeſs of the Daniſh Expedition; for if that either miſcarry, or is laid aſide, as ſome People flatter themſelves it will, through the Interpoſition of the King of Great Britain, the Gallic Syſtem will be once more overturn'd, and the Peace of the North effectually ſecur'd; which, may, probably, go a good Way in ſecuring the Peace of Germany.

Nuremberg, Auguſt 30. The Account we have this Morning by the Poſt from Amberg, gains entire Credit here, on account of the following Letter, written by a Perſon of Diſtinction from the Camp before Egra, on the 25th,

'Inſtead of being govern'd in my Sentiments by the 'different and contradictory Accounts every Day ſpread 'abroad, as to the Situation of Things at Egra, I de'termin'd with myſelf to go thither, and truſt my own 'Eyes. This Scheme I have accordingly executed, and 'you may very ſafely rely on what I am going to tell 'you. The Auſtrians who form'd the Blockade of that 'City, are divided into two Camps. The firſt is about 'three-forths of a League from the Place, in the 'Neighbourhood of the famous Mineral Waters; it conſiſts of the Regiment of Wurmbrand's Infantry, and 'one of the fineſt that was ever ſeen; ſeveral Squadrons 'of Huſſars, and two Battalions of a Hungarian Regi'ment, heretofore call'd Talpaſhes, but, of late, they 'will not be call'd ſo by any means, and therefore 'People are forbid to give them this Name, under very 'ſevere Penalties. The ſecond Camp is at a Place call'd 'the Holy Croſs; it conſiſts of the Regiment of Lob'kowitz's Cuiraſſiers, a Regiment of Hungarian Foot, 'and ſome Squadrons of Huſſars. Between theſe two 'Camps and the City, the Pandours are poſted; who, 'in the Space of two Years, have ſo effectually learnt 'the Art of War, and withal, preſerv'd their own Agi'lity and Intrepidity, ſo that no Regular Troops care to 'meddle with them. The Day before Yeſterday, the 'Governor deſir'd an Interview with Count Kolowrath, 'at which he produced a Capitulation, conſiſting of 18 'Articles, all of which were readily granted, except the 'laſt; and even, in reference to this, a Courier has been 'diſpatch'd to Vienna, who is expected back the Day 'after To-morrow, and who, it is thought, will bring 'a favourable Anſwer. In the mean time, there is a 'Suſpenſion of Arms, and the Inhabitants of Egra, are 'ſuffer'd to come and go freely, and to eat and drink 'what they think fit at the Suttlers; but they are not 'ſuffer'd to carry any Proviſions away. As very ſtrict 'Diſcipline is obſerv'd, there is prodigious Plenty of all 'Things in both Camps, and Things are even cheaper 'there, than in the adjacent Town.'

Turin, Auguſt 17. There was, two Days ago, a ſmall Skirmiſh between an advanced Guard of our Vaudois on Mount Senis, and a Detachment of 32 Companies of Spaniſh Grenadiers, 600 Miquelets, and two Troops of Dragoons, at the Head of which M. de Caſtellar was come to reconnoitre that Paſſage; but though the Vaudois at firſt loſt Ground, yet on their being reinforced, they recovered the Poſt, and have kept it. We loſt three or four Men on our Side, and the Spaniards ſome few more, as we have ſince been informed by ſeveral of their Deſerters, who came in Yeſterday.

Worms, September 3. The Army of the Allies will remain, it is ſaid, where they are, till ſuch time as they are join'd by the Dutch Auxiliaries; and, in the mean while, Parties from both Armies haraſs each other daily. The French Priſoners that we expected ſhould have been brought hither, were carried to Hernſheim, a Village at the Diſtance of a League from hence; their Uniform was Blue trimm'd with Black. M. de Romberg, who was ſaid to be at their Head, happen'd not to be amongſt them. They were commanded by a French Officer whoſe Name was Sapience; and the Perſon who commanded the Detachment that took them, was a Captain in Baronai's Regiment of Huſſirs. The Diſpute was very bloody; they fought like Bull-Dogs on both Sides; the French had 44 kill'd upon the Spot, and the Number of the Priſoners is about 130.

Worms, September 4. Baron Sohlenthal, the Daniſh Miniſter, is arriv'd at Franckfort, and is expected here every Day. We hear, that this Morning the reſpective Quarter-maſters General of the combined Army, ſet out to recon oitre the Ground near Frankenthal. Count Naſſau was laſt Sunday at Marpurg, 100 Engliſh Miles from hence, with the Dutch Troops under his Command.

Fraarbach, September 1. We are to ſend away To-morrow 82 Waggons, in order to carry off the Corn and Forage which Baron Mentzel has taken from the Enemy. Theſe Waggons have Orders to carry the whole to Luxembourg, where the Baron has already ſent the reſt of his Booty and Priſoners. The Detachment that guarded the ſeven Mules laden with Gold, conſiſted of 400 Men, ſome of which were kill'd, and all of them diſpers'd; two of their Officers, deſperately wounded, arrived this Morning at Luxembourg in a Chaiſe and Four. A Courier arrived at the laſt mention'd City Yeſterday, with Orders for Baron Mentzel to rejoin, immediately, the Army of the Allies; whence we conjecture, that his Britannick Maj[illegible] intends to give the French Battle immediately.

Hague, September 11. The Prince of Heſſe Hombourg, lately took the Oath of Fidelity before their High Mightineſſes, the States General, as General of Horſe in their Service. According to our laſt Advices from Berlin, Things begin to have an odd Aſpect there; but if our Politicians are to be depended upon, all Things in that Part of the World muſt be govern'd by the Conduct of the Czarina; who, now ſhe has adjuſted all Differences with the Swedes, may, if ſhe pleaſes, give Law to the reſt of her Neighbours. We expect every Moment the Marquis de Fenelon from Aix la Chapelle, and, it is ſaid, that as ſoon as he has ſettled his Family Affairs here, he will make a Tour to Paris.

HOME PORTS.

Briſtol, September 4. Laſt Night arriv'd the William, Sample, from New York; and this Day the Providence, ———, from Jamaica. 'She came out the 20th of 'June with the Fleet, but parted with them in a Day 'or two after.'

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, whichit almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Raiford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, proceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noster-Row.
